

October 22, 2019

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SIX GIRLS WHO WERE VICTIMS OF TEACHER’S SECRET UP-SKIRT PHOTOS FILE LAWSUIT AGAINST TEACHER BERDOLL AND ATASCADERO SCHOOL DISTRICT

Six adolescent girls who were among the many alleged victims of sixth grade teacher Chris Berdoll at the Atascadero Fine Arts Academy in Atascadero, California, have sued both defendants. Police recovered a multitude of illicit “up-skirt” photographs and videos from the electronic devices of Mr. Berdoll. While Mr. Berdoll awaits his October 29, 2019 criminal arraignment on 44 felony charges related to child pornography in nearby San Luis Obispo, attorney Lisa Bloom has recently filed a federal lawsuit on the girls’ behalf against both Mr. Berdoll and the Atascadero Unified School District. The girls range in age from twelve to fourteen. The lawsuit demands full and fair compensation for the girls’ emotional pain and suffering caused by Berdoll’s appalling conduct and by the school district’s failure to prevent it and failure to protect the children in its care.

Witnesses and evidence are essential in every case. Anyone who has information about this case is urged to contact us via our website:

<https://thebloomfirm.com/information-about-our-cases/>

MEDIA CONTACT:

Marcelino Valencap, Media Coordinator for The Bloom Firm

Marcelino@TheBloomFirm.com

(818) 914-7343